Augur closes Rights Issue Offer

Diversified minerals explorer Augur Resources Limited (Augur) has closed its renounceable rights share issue offer with a subscription of 53,055,979 shares fully allotted and an under-subscription of 49,944,047 shares. A total of $1,114,175 has been raised from the issue.

Augur Resources has three months to place the shortfall from the rights issue.

Augur offered 103,000,026 shares at an issue price of $0.021 each based on a 2 shares for every 1 share held at record date.

Augur Managing Director Grant Kensington, who has resource experience at Board and CEO level, said the Company, received strong investor support from its key local and international institutional investors.

Mr. Kensington said, "We believe that our investors have a great opportunity in a region that has been comparatively under explored using modern exploration techniques".

Over the last 12 months, Augur Resources defined JORC resources at its Yeoval copper-gold-molybdenum-silver deposit and at its Homeville nickel-cobalt deposit. Mr. Kensington said "money raised from the rights issue will be used to further define resources at these exciting projects and at our other advanced exploration projects".
